SPEAKER

Ms. Deblina Mukherjee, Assistant Professor, Department of Political Science, Jhargram Raj College Girl's Wing

PROCEEDINGS OF THE PROGRAM

discussed the topic 'Dominated Consciousness to Critical Consciousness- The Changing Agency of Women Versus Unchanging Role Expectations'. Ms Mukherjee's discussions were based on awareness, consciousness and change as the primary motivating factors in women's empowerment. Imparting knowledge does not automatically result in women's empowerment but knowledge needs to be imparted in such a manner that it resonates with logic, societal differences and cultural differences. Women should be the initiators of their change. Imposing awareness without involving those for whom it is meant appears to be fruitless. Professor Mukherjee discussed the subjugation of women under three broad headings- power and decision-making, power and agenda-setting and power and thought control. This is society's mechanism to control its women.

She drew on examples from everyday Indian households to elaborate on her points: starting from female foeticide to denying education to the girl child, forceful marriage, denying financial independence and domestic violence. Women, from a very early age, are taught not to question the established norms. Claiming back their rights and rightful position, as Ms Mukherjee mentions, will be a long-drawn process entailing not only women not conforming to mainstream societal ideas and institutions but also men, be it father or brother or boyfriend or husband, coming forward to support their women.

PARTICIPANT DETAILS:

NO. OF STUDENTS ATTENDING THE PROGRAMME: 91

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM

The discussions revealed that the objectives were achieved. The students were able to develop a concrete idea about the different schools of feminism. They also learnt about the position of women in different historical periods. They also learnt the difference between the realm private sphere and the public sphere and were made aware of the need for human rights and women empowerment. They also came to know that women should be the agents of their social change.
