ALUMNI FEEDBACK SURVEY

ACTION-TAKEN REPORT

SURVEY YEAR 2021-2022
ACTION-TAKEN YEAR 2021-22

A survey was conducted in the year 2021-2022 among the alumni members of Government General Degree College, Mangalkote i.e. the students having passing out years of 2018, 2019, 2020 and 2021. 16 students participated in the alumni feedback survey and answered various questions on teaching-learning process, use of ICT in teaching, the approachability of the college office, the availability of sports and recreational facilities and the like. They also made some recommendations as to the scope for betterment of the institution in various departments. The following actions were taken by the HOI in persuasion of the recommendation in the year 2021-2022:

1. Proposal was submitted to the Directorate of Public Instruction, Education Directorate, Govt. of West Bengal seeking administrative approval and request for grants for internet connectivity for classroom, library, online classes and computer cell.
2. 6 Add-on courses were introduced in the session 2021-2022; Lok Utsab by the Dept of Bengali, Role of Museums in Understanding History by the Dept of History, Introduction to Social Work and Agrarian Society in India by the Dept of Sociology, Media and Politics by the Dept of Political Science and Avifaunal Diversity by the Dept of Zoology.
3. 11 Seminars and Webinars were organized by the UGC Seminar Committee of GGDC, Mangalkote in the session 2021-2022 that greatly enhanced participatory learning among both the teachers and the students. Moreover, the use of ICT tools in the seminars and webinars promoted effective teaching-learning through audio-visual enhancements which in turn proved to be beneficial for realizing the course objectives.
