OBJECTIVES OF THE PROGRAM

- To enable students to grasp the historical background and evolution of land revenue policies in the Bengal Presidency, highlighting key factors and events that influenced policy decisions.
- To explore the socio-economic impacts of land revenue policies on different segments of society in colonial Bengal, including farmers, landlords, and rural communities.
- To provide insights into the process of formulating land revenue policies during the colonial era, focusing on administrative practices, legislative frameworks, and the role of British governance.
- To foster a comparative analysis of land revenue policies between Bengal Presidency and other regions of colonial India, discussing similarities, differences, and their implications.
- To discuss the relevance of historical land revenue policies to contemporary agricultural and economic challenges in India, encouraging students to reflect on lessons learned and potential policy implications for modern times.
- These objectives aim to equip undergraduate students with a comprehensive understanding of the historical context, socio-economic impacts, policy formulation processes, comparative perspectives, and contemporary relevance of land revenue policies in Bengal Presidency.

SPEAKER: Dr. Avijit Singha , Assistant Professor in History, Kandra Radhakanta Kundu Mahavidyalaya

Proceedings of the Program

The program titled "The Shaping of Land Revenue Policy in Bengal Presidency," delivered by Dr. Avijit Singha of Kandra Radhakanta Kundu Mahavidya, aimed to elucidate the historical evolution and socio-economic implications of land revenue policies during the colonial era. The lecture provided undergraduate students with a comprehensive understanding of how these policies were formulated, administered, and their impacts on various segments of society in Bengal. Dr. Singha explored the administrative practices, legislative frameworks, and the role of British governance in shaping land revenue policies. Comparative analysis with other regions of colonial India highlighted both similarities and distinctive features, offering insights into regional variations and their consequences. Moreover, the program encouraged students to reflect on the enduring relevance of historical land revenue policies to contemporary agricultural and economic challenges in India. By examining these aspects, the lecture aimed to equip students with critical insights into the historical context and socio-economic dynamics that continue to shape policy landscapes today.

NO. OF STUDENTS ATTENDING THE PROGRAMME: 40

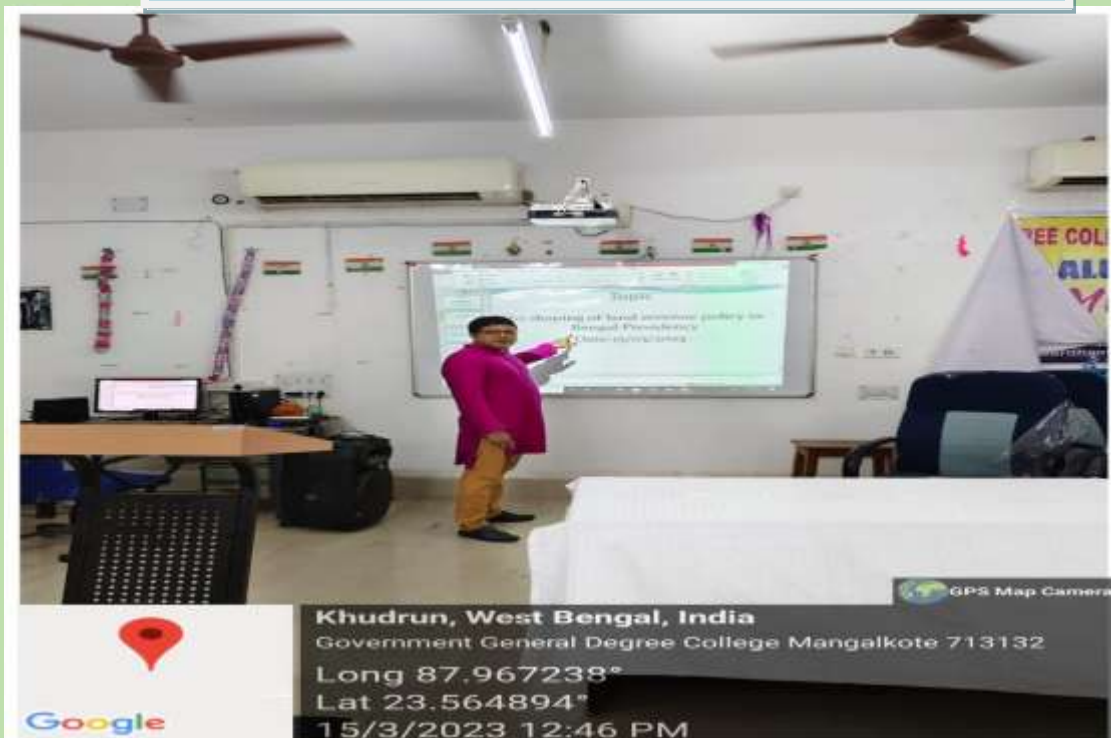

OUTCOME OF THE PROGRAM

- Students gained a deeper understanding of the historical context and evolution of land revenue policy in Bengal Presidency, enhancing their knowledge of Indian history and colonial administration.
- Students developed critical thinking skills, analyzing the impact of British colonial policies on Indian society, economy, and politics, and evaluating the legacy of these policies.
- Students recognized the significance of land revenue policy in shaping the socio-economic landscape of Bengal and India, appreciating the complex relationships between colonial powers, landlords, and peasants.
- Students improved their research skills, learning to analyze primary and secondary sources, and developing an understanding of historical methodology and scholarship.
- Students were inspired to explore further the intersections of history, economics, and politics, cultivating a nuanced understanding of India's complex past and its ongoing impact on contemporary society.
- These outcomes cater specifically to undergraduate students, focusing on knowledge acquisition, critical thinking, research skills, and inspiration for further learning.
- The program will strengthen academic collaboration between Government General Degree College Mangalkote and Kandra Radhakanta Kundu Mahavidya. By jointly organizing and participating in the lecture, faculty and students from both institutions will have the opportunity to exchange knowledge, resources, and perspectives on historical and socio-economic topics related to colonial land revenue policies. This collaboration can foster interdisciplinary discussions and research initiatives, enriching the academic environment and promoting mutual learning.

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

GOVERNMENT GENERAL DEGREE COLLEGE, MANGALKOTE, a reputed higher education institution, located at Panchanantala, Khudrun Dighi, P.O: Majhigram, Block - Mangalkote, Dist: Purba Bardhaman (W.B.) INDIA, PIN-713132 as the FIRST PARTY;

AND

KANDRA RADHAKANTA KUNDU MAHAVIDYALAYA, P.O. Kandra, P.S. Ketugram, Dist - Purba Bardhaman (W.B.) INDIA, PIN-713129, as the SECOND PARTY.

Both the parties herein have noted the importance of the value of cooperation and have agreed to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) regarding academic collaboration. The purpose of this non-binding MoU is to make possible academic and cultural exchange between both the parties based on the principles of mutual equality and the reciprocity of benefits. NOW THIS MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING is agreed by and between both the colleges hereto as follows:

1. Objectives, Scope and Major Activities:

Both institutions agree to encourage the development of the following types of activities:

- Formal exchange of faculty members in specific mutually agreed upon areas of education, research and outreach.
- Cooperate in under-graduate education and training through library as well as laboratory resources.
- Organize joint conferences, seminar, webinar, symposia, or other meetings on subjects of mutual interest.
- Exchange of academic information and materials.
- Pursue avenues for student exchange during the academic year.
- Explore the possibilities for developing joint research programs and collaborations.

2. Responsibilities of the Institutions

The two institutions identify that the execution of any agreed upon activity will depend upon the interests and expertise of the individuals involved and the availability of financial resources, space and other resources. Accordingly, the functioning of any exchanges or collaborative programs based on this MoU shall be conferred and determined between the two institutions. It is further expected that both the institutions will be compliant with all applicable legislations of Government of India and State and University policies.

3. Duration and Option to Amend, Extend or Terminate

This MoU will become effective when signed by authorities of both institutions. The agreement will remain in effect for five years from the date of signature given below, and may be renewed or amended by mutual agreement of the institutions. The institutions should agree to periodically review the activities undertaken and the progress made and to consult concerning amendments, renewal or termination of this MoU. Either authority may terminate this MoU at any time by providing written notice prior to three months before such termination to the other authority.

4. General Terms

This MoU is not intended to, and does not create any right, benefit, or trust responsibility, substantive or procedural, enforceable by law or equity, by either party, its officers, employees, or agents against the other party, its officers, employees, or agents. Nothing in this MoU obligates either party to commit or transfer any funds, assets, or other resources in support of projects or activities between the two parties. Neither party will use the name of the other, either expressly or by implication, in any publicity, solicitation or advertisement without the express written approval of the other party to this MoU.

5. Signatures

This MoU is valid for 5 years and shall enter into force on the date of the signing by qualified representatives of both institutions.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the duly authorized signatories have set their hands and affix their signatures and seals on this the 08th day of September, 2022.
